CORPORATE STRUCTURE

Trez Capital Mortgage Investment Corporation is a federal corporation incorporated under the Canada Business Corporations Act pursuant to articles of incorporation dated April 18, 2012. The articles were amended on May 24, 2012 to (i) redesignate the common shares as “Voting Shares”, (ii) create the Class A Shares, (iii) set out the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions of the Voting Shares and Class A Shares, and (iv) specify the Investment Objectives and investment restrictions of the Company. The articles were further amended on November 30, 2013 to (i) remove the Voting Shares, (ii) revise the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions of the Class A Shares, (iii) create the Class B Shares and set out the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions of the Class B Shares, and (iv) remove the investment restrictions previously imposed upon the Company. The Company’s head and registered office is at 1700-745 Thurlow Street, Vancouver, British Columbia V6E 0C5.

On February 15, 2017, the Company took up and paid for 4,216,867 Shares at a price of $8.30 per Share under the Company’s 2017 SIB. As a result of the cash outlay, less than 50% of the cost amount to the Company of its property consists of residential mortgages, deposits with banks and credit unions and cash. This has resulted in the Company losing its status as a MIC for the purposes of the Tax Act for the 2017 and subsequent taxation years. See “General Development of the Business - Recent Developments - Loss of MIC Status”.

The Company is not a trust company and, accordingly, is not registered under the trust company legislation of any jurisdiction. The Shares are not “deposits” within the meaning of the Canadian Deposit Insurance Corporation Act (Canada) and are not insured under the provisions of that Act or any other legislation.

GENERAL DEVELOPMENT OF THE BUSINESS

Three Year History

The Company completed two public offerings of securities in 2012 for aggregate gross proceeds of $230,000,000. The net proceeds from these public offerings were used by the Company to fund Mortgage loans in accordance with the Company’s Investment Objectives.

The Company’s Portfolio increased from an aggregate principal amount of $196,169,507 on December 31, 2014 to an aggregate principal amount of $198,282,837 on December 31, 2015. The net increase was primarily due to an increase in Mortgage syndications of $8,951,929 plus capitalized interest of $3,807,717 offset by a decline caused by principal repayments exceeding investments in Mortgages by $10,646,316.

The Company’s Portfolio decreased from an aggregate principal amount of $198,282,837 on December 31, 2015 to an aggregate principal amount of $94,868,684 on December 31, 2016. The net decrease was primarily due to principal repayments exceeding investments in Mortgages by $81,946,651 following cessation of Mortgage funding activities and increase in Mortgage repayments pursuant to the Order Wind-Up Plan, a decrease of Mortgage syndications of $14,351,928, and $9,516,249 in fair value adjustments on Mortgages offset by capitalized interest of $2,400,675.

The Company's Portfolio decreased from an aggregate principal amount of $94,868,684 on December 31, 2016 to an aggregate principal amount of $48,133,697 on December 31, 2017. The net decrease was primarily due to principal repayments exceeding investments in Mortgages by $46,355,052, and $1,022,741 in fair value adjustments on Mortgages, net of realized mortgage investment loss, offset by capitalized interest of $642,806.

Until June 2016, the Company declared and paid monthly cash dividends to Class A Shareholders each month of $0.0583 per Class A Share ($0.70 per annum representing an annual cash dividend of 7.0% based on the $10.00 price per Class A Share at which Class A Shares were issued during the Company's previous public offerings), for a total of $0.29 per Class A Share declared in 2012, $0.70 per Class A Share declared in 2013 through 2015 and 0.4081 per Class A Share declared from January 2016 to June 2016. Such dividends were treated as interest income to Shareholders with the end result that each Shareholder was effectively in the same position as if the Shareholder directly held an interest in the Mortgages held by the Company.

From July 2016 through to December 31, 2017, as part of the discontinuance and winding up of the business of the Company, the Company declared distributions as a return of capital of $0.0583 per Class A Share payable to Shareholders of record on the last business day of each month during this period. The Company declared two special distributions as a return of capital of $2.46 and $0.838 per Class A Share payable to Shareholders of record on August 15, 2017 and November 24, 2017, respectively, for an aggregate of $39,773,924. On March 23, 2018, the Company declared a special distribution as a return of capital of $1.52 per Class A Share payable to Shareholders of record on April 9, 2018, and suspended regular monthly distributions until further notice.

A distribution of paid-up capital is not treated as a dividend to a Shareholder. The amount of paid-up capital returned to a Shareholder reduces the Shareholder's adjusted cost base in the Shares of such Shareholder. Provided that a Shareholder's adjusted cost base in the Shares is not a negative amount at the end of the taxation year, the return of paid-up capital is a tax-free distribution. To the extent a Shareholder's adjusted cost base in such Shares becomes a negative amount, the Shareholder will generally realize a capital gain to the extent of the negative amount. Any Shareholders whose adjusted cost base in their Shares may become a negative amount as a result of returns of capital on the Shares by the Company should consult their own tax advisors.

Recent Developments

Initiation of Strategic Review Process

On September 28, 2015, the Board established the Special Committee, composed of directors who are independent of the Manager, to consider alternatives to enhance value for Shareholders. The Special Committee was authorized to oversee a review process to be undertaken in response to concerns raised by Shareholders regarding the discount of the Company's share trading price relative to its book value (the "Strategic Review Process").

Shareholder Requisition

In the midst of the strategic review process, the Board received a Shareholder requisition on February 8, 2016, requesting that the directors call a special meeting of the Shareholders for the purpose of (i) reconstituting the Board with three new independent directors, and (ii) voting on a special resolution to wind-up the Company. On February 18, 2016 the Board, on the recommendation of the Special Committee, directed the Company to call a special and annual meeting of Shareholders to be held on May 30, 2016 to consider the resolutions put forward by the Shareholder group (the “Shareholder Group”). The Special Committee determined to hold the special meeting concurrently with the annual meeting in order to be able to conclude the Strategic Review Process and make a recommendation to Shareholders on the best course of action. The Company’s annual and special meeting of Shareholders was subsequently rescheduled to June 16, 2016.

Monetization Process

On February 18, 2016, as part of the Strategic Review Process, the Special Committee announced that it was pursuing a monetization process (a “Monetization Process”) and discussions were ongoing with third parties who had expressed an interest in a monetization transaction involving the Company and/or its assets.

In order to facilitate the Monetization Process, on February 18, 2016, the Company and the Manager entered into a memorandum of understanding (the “Memorandum of Understanding”), pursuant to which the Manager consented to an early termination of the Management Agreement prior to November 30, 2018 in exchange for an early termination fee in the event that the Special Committee recommended a sale of the Company or substantially all of its assets that was approved by the Shareholders. Further, in order to facilitate the process in the best interest of all Shareholders, the Board, at the direction of the Special Committee, implemented a shareholder rights plan agreement (the “Rights Plan”). See “Description of Capital Structure - Rights Plan” for a description of the Rights Plan. The Monetization Process was concluded in April 2016 as no bids were received that the Special Committee was prepared to recommend to Shareholders.

Completion of Strategic Review Process

On May 9, 2016, the Special Committee of the Board announced the completion of a strategic review process, an amicable settlement with the Shareholder Group, and a go-forward plan to maximize value for all Shareholders by way of an orderly wind-up of the Company’s assets and the return of capital to Shareholders (the “Orderly Wind-Up Plan”), which was approved at the shareholders meeting held on June 16, 2016. As part of the plan, the Board constituted a new committee of the Board (the “Investment & Capital Management Committee”) consisting of Gary Samuel (Chair) and Zachary George and authorized an active normal course issuer bid for the Shares (the “NCIB”). The Investment & Capital Management Committee was authorized to provide instructions to the broker under the NCIB including, without limitation, automatic trading instructions.

The Company also entered into a resolution agreement with the Shareholder Group dated May 6, 2016 and an agreement with the Manager dated May 6, 2016 to amend the terms of the Management Agreement (the “Amending Agreement”). See “Management of the Company - The Manager - Amending Agreement”.

In accordance with the Amending Agreement, the Board irrevocably and unconditionally directed the Manager to cease all new mortgage origination and, unless approved by the Investment & Capital Management Committee and subject to compliance with contractual requirements, all mortgage renewal activity. Furthermore, the mandate of the Investment & Capital Management Committee was expanded to include the management and oversight of the Orderly Wind-Up Plan including, without limitation, all matters relating to the sales of loans (such as price, timing of sale, purchaser, etc.), loan consents and renewals and matters related to the return of capital to Shareholders, including consideration of a substantial issuer bid and consideration of the maintenance of the current level of distributions, with the input of the Manager, acting in its capacity as manager of the Company, and subject to the approval of the Board as required. The Company has ceased all new mortgage originations and mortgage renewals, subject to contractual requirements.

Description of the Orderly Wind-Up Plan

The nature of the Company's assets are such that the Company has contractual liquidity rights in the form of scheduled maturities. Excluding past due mortgages, the expected weighted average term to maturity of the Portfolio as of December 31, 2017 is 12.1 months and approximately $12.2 million in mortgages (representing approximately 23.7% of the total Portfolio) are scheduled to mature on or before December 31, 2017. The final scheduled loan maturity in the Company's Portfolio is currently December of 2019. The Company, on recommendation by the Investment & Capital Management Committee, may pursue, where appropriate, opportunities to accelerate the monetization of the Company's loan Portfolio through the sale of loans to third parties.

Under the Orderly Wind-Up Plan, net cash proceeds from the monetization of loans will be distributed to Shareholders in a manner that is in the best interests of Shareholders as recommended by the Investment & Capital Management Committee and approved by the Board.

In connection with the Orderly Wind Up Plan, the Company has purchased for cancellation 1,154,546 Class A Shares of the Company at a volume weighted average price of $7.47 per Class A Share under its NCIB program and has purchased for cancellation an aggregate of 6,216,867 Class A Shares for aggregate consideration of $52,000,000 under two substantial issuer bids, as described in more detail below. Since July 2016, the Company ceased paying dividends and, between July 2016 and March 2018, declared distributions as a return of capital of $0.0583 per Class A Share payable to Shareholders of record on the last business day of each month. The Company declared two special distributions as a return of capital of $2.46 and $0.838 per Class A Share payable to Shareholders of record on August 15, 2017 and November 24, 2017, respectively, for an aggregate of $39,773,924. On March 23, 2018, the Company declared a special distribution as a return of capital of $1.52 per Class A Share payable to Shareholders of record on April 9, 2018, and suspended regular monthly distributions until further notice.

The Company received approval from the TSX to commence an NCIB on May 19, 2016 for up to 1,808,610 Class A Shares, which bid expired on May 18, 2017. The Company purchased 736,116 Class A Shares at a volume weighted average price of $8.25 per Class A Share under this NCIB.

The Company received approval from the TSX for the renewal of its NCIB, commencing on May 19, 2017 for up to 1,210,345 Class A Shares, which bid will expire on May 18, 2018 (or earlier if the number of Shares approved for purchase has been reached). Since May 19, 2017, the Company has purchased 418,430 Class A Shares at a volume weighted average price of $6.11 per Class A Share under this NCIB.

The purpose of the NCIB is to improve Shareholder value by buying back and cancelling Class

A Shares, thereby increasing the ownership interest percentage of the remaining Shareholders. Purchases pursuant to the NCIB are by way of open market purchases through the facilities of the TSX, and other Canadian marketplaces, and payment for the Shares is made in accordance with the TSX's bylaws and rules. Any Shares purchased by the Company have been and will be subsequently cancelled.

Substantial Issuer Bids

On August 15, 2016, the Company commenced a substantial issuer bid (the “2016 SIB”) to purchase for cancellation up to 2,000,000 Class A Shares from Shareholders for cash by way of a “Dutch auction” for an aggregate purchase price not to exceed $17,000,000. A total of 9,731,974 Class A Shares were properly tendered to the 2016 SIB and not withdrawn. As the 2016 SIB was oversubscribed, the 2016 SIB was subject to proration (with adjustments to avoid the purchase of fractional Shares). On September 20, 2016, the Company took up and paid for 2,000,000 Class A Shares at a price of $8.50 per Share for total consideration of $17,000,000. The Shares were subsequently cancelled.

On January 10, 2017, the Company commenced a substantial issuer bid (the “2017 SIB”) to purchase for cancellation up to 4,375,000 Class A Shares from Shareholders for cash by way of a “Dutch auction” for an aggregate purchase price not to exceed $35,000,000. A total of 4,778,376 Class A Shares were properly tendered to the 2017 SIB and not withdrawn. As the 2017 SIB was oversubscribed, the 2017 SIB was subject to proration (with adjustments to avoid the purchase of fractional Shares). On February 15, 2017, the Company took up and paid for 4,216,867 Class A Shares at a price of $8.30 per Share for total consideration of $35,000,000. The Shares were subsequently cancelled.

Loss of MIC Status

As a result of the completion of the 2017 SIB and the cash outlay to purchase Shares for cancellation, less than 50% of the cost amount to the Company of its property consists of residential mortgages, cash and deposits with banks and credit unions. This has resulted in the Company losing its status as a “mortgage investment corporation” for purposes of the Tax Act for the 2017 taxation year. As a result, in computing its taxable income for purposes of the Tax Act for 2017 and subsequent taxation years, the Company will not be able to deduct dividends paid to shareholders. The Manager believes that the Company's non-capital losses available to be carried forward will be sufficient to offset any income of the Company in 2017 and in subsequent taxation years such that the Manager does not expect the Company to be subject to tax under Part I of the Tax Act on its income in 2017 and in subsequent years.

DESCRIPTION OF THE BUSINESS

Overview

Prior to commencing the Orderly Wind-Up, the Company's objective was to fund a diversified portfolio of Mortgages that generated attractive returns in order to permit the Company to pay monthly dividends to its Shareholders while preserving capital (the “Investment Objective”). The Company sought to accomplish this objective through prudent investments in Mortgages to qualified real estate investors and developers, focusing primarily on short-term bridge financing needs not currently serviced by traditional real estate lenders. See “General Development of the Business - Recent Developments - Description of the Orderly Wind-Up Plan” above.

Overview of the Portfolio

The current Portfolio consists of mortgage investments in Canada. The underlying real estate in the Company's Portfolio includes residential (including multi-residential, retirement and student residences, residential building lots and condominium inventory), retail, and office real estate.

Lending Policies and Guidelines

Mortgages are secured primarily by income producing Real Property where the principal and interest can be serviced from cash flow generated by the underlying Real Property. The Company believes that its key lending practices and advantages in this market include its: (i) flexible structuring capability, (ii) speed of approval and funding, and (iii) certainty of execution, all of which lead to repeat business opportunities.

In general, the Mortgages generate income through a rate of interest, which is typically payable periodically throughout the terms of the Mortgages, as well as through Commitment Fees. A Commitment Fee is a one-time fee, net of the amount paid as compensation to the Originator, paid by a borrower to the Company in return for obtaining a commitment for Mortgage financing. It is stated either as a fixed dollar amount or a percentage of the principal amount of the Mortgage, and is generally paid at the time of initial funding. All Mortgages are secured by Real Property consisting primarily of residential (generally not including single family residential), office, retail, industrial or other commercial property in Canada. Mortgages are either first ranking, have a junior position in a first ranking Mortgage, or are second ranking, and individual Mortgages may be secured by more than one property owned by the same mortgagor. In some cases, the Company and other mortgage investment entities managed by Trez retain the entire Mortgage.

In other cases, a third party investor (typically a Canadian chartered bank, a trust company or another mortgage investment entity) may participate in a senior portion of a first Mortgage at a reduced interest rate in exchange for the senior ranking in the first mortgage. In this case, the Company retains a larger amount of interest revenue when compared to the portion of the Mortgage retained by the third party investor. This practice – sometimes referred to as “tranching” – enables the Company to effectively increase its returns while using less capital for each Mortgage loan, and facilitates greater asset diversification for the Company. In all cases, Trez retains control over administering the entire Mortgage. The Company believes that this results in the Company receiving a relatively larger amount of interest revenue compared to the minor change in risk associated with the portion of the Mortgage it retains.

An investment by the Company in a second Mortgage differs from a junior position in a first Mortgage in that a second Mortgage has a lower priority for repayment and Trez does not have control over administering the first Mortgage should a default occur.

Under the Orderly Wind Up Plan, as the Mortgages mature and are repaid, the Company will not reinvest repayment proceeds in new Mortgages.

Mortgage Administration Process

Trez manages the risks associated with defaulting Mortgages through careful monitoring of Mortgages, active communication with borrowers and prompt institution of enforcement procedures on defaulting Mortgages. Trez regularly monitors the status of each Mortgage and that of the borrower. Trez communicates regularly with borrowers to understand how their Real Property is performing and to discuss and monitor their repayment strategies and redevelopment strategies, where appropriate. Trez believes that a strong relationship with borrowers is critical to the success of the Mortgages.

Trez monitors the performance of the Portfolio, including tracking the status of outstanding payments due, due dates, and the calculation and assessment of other applicable charges. Each member of management of Trez has extensive knowledge and understanding of the Mortgage and real estate industries.

All legal costs and costs related to default procedures under the Mortgages are for the account of the mortgagors.

Where appropriate, and in most cases, title insurance has been obtained. Any title insurance is held in the name of the Manager and not the Company. In addition, the lender of record obtains standard security in respect of commercial Mortgages which, depending on the specific Mortgage, may include one or more of an assignment of rents, an assignment of purchase agreements (on residential development projects), a general security agreement and personal covenants from borrowers.

The Company's Mortgages generally are with borrowers who require funding in a transitional phase of their investment process, therefore it is not unusual for these borrowers to be temporarily non-compliant with a Mortgage covenant (such as late delivery of a reporting requirement or late payment of an amount due under the Mortgage). Trez refers to these instances of technical non-compliance as a "default" and works with the borrower and if needed, the courts, to remedy the default as quickly as reasonably possible. In all cases, Trez seeks to obtain payment of all principal and interest due under the Mortgage. Far less common are circumstances where, in Trez's opinion, there has been a deterioration of the credit quality to the extent that there no longer is a reasonable assurance as to the collection of the full amount of principal and interest due under the Mortgage. Trez refers to these Mortgages as "impaired" and makes a provision for any expected losses in its financial statements to take into account the risk that the Mortgage will not be repaid in full.

The Manager manages the risk to the Company by diversifying the Portfolio geographically and across residential, industrial, retail and office sectors. To manage and diversify risk, Trez may permit one or more investors to participate in Mortgages. See "Mortgage Tranching" below.

Mortgage Tranching

The Company holds interests in Mortgages in which Trez has permitted third parties (typically Canadian chartered banks, trust companies and other mortgage lenders) and/or other mortgage investment entities managed by the Manager to participate in senior portions of a first Mortgage at reduced interest rates. This enabled the Company to retain a larger amount of interest revenue when compared to the portion of the Mortgages retained by the other investors. This practice – sometimes referred to as "tranching" – enabled the Company to effectively increase its returns while using less capital for each Mortgage loan, and facilitates greater asset diversification for the Company. In all cases, Trez retained control over administering the entire Mortgage. The Company believes that tranching enhances risk-adjusted returns as the interest rate charged by the Company was higher than the rate it would have charged under an equivalent non-tranched Mortgage.

The participation interests of the Company, other mortgage investment entities managed by the Manager, and any third parties in Mortgages are represented through participation agreements under which Trez retains control over administering the entire Mortgage. The standard participation agreements used with respect to Mortgages provide that, in the event of a failure by the borrower to pay any amount owing under a Mortgage, the mortgagees are entitled to enforce the Mortgage in accordance with applicable law. In the event of a failure by a mortgagor to make a scheduled payment of interest and/or principal, the mortgagees will immediately communicate with the mortgagor and, failing prompt rectification, will issue a notice of their intent to exercise such remedy or remedies available to the mortgagees which Trez considers appropriate. The participation agreements provide a legal entitlement of the Company in the subject Mortgage, although not necessarily a directly registered interest.

Allocation Policy

The Manager has, from time to time, determined that a Mortgage lending opportunity was suitable for the Company and one or more other mortgage investment entities managed by the Manager based upon, among other factors, each entity's investment objectives and investment guidelines, its current Portfolio holdings, and its expected available cash in the near term. The Manager determined the target size of a suitable loan by each entity in the Mortgage and the entities participated pro rata in the Mortgage based on their respective target loan sizes.

In some circumstances, the Company was allocated a position in such Mortgage which was senior to, pari passu with and/or junior to the positions allocated to other mortgage investment entities managed by the Manager. Where another mortgage investment entity managed by Trez holds a senior position in the same Mortgage as the Company, such other entity was allocated a rate of interest based on the Manager's determination of the rate of interest that would be allocated to an arm's length third party for the same senior position. Where another mortgage investment entity managed by Trez holds a junior position in the same Mortgage as the Company, the interest rate that was assigned to the Company's position approximates the interest rate that would be paid by a borrower for an equivalent Mortgage. Generally, the rate of interest allocated to the Company for its interest in a Mortgage was more than the rate of interest that was allocated to other mortgage investment entities holding a more senior position in the same Mortgage and less than the rate of interest allocated to other mortgage investment entities holding a more junior position in the same Mortgage.

Investment Guidelines

Prior to commencement of the Orderly Wind-Up, the Company followed certain Investment Guidelines, which had been determined by the Board.

Following commencement of the Orderly Wind-Up, no new mortgages have been or will be initiated. Accordingly, the Investment Guidelines are no longer applicable. In particular, the Company is no longer required to maintain its status as a MIC. Effective February 15, 2017, the Company no longer qualified as a MIC. See "General Development of the Business - Recent Developments - Loss of MIC Status".

RISK FACTORS

There are certain risks inherent in an investment in Shares of the Company, including the factors summarized below, which investors should carefully consider before investing in Shares. Some of the following factors are interrelated and, consequently, investors should treat such risk factors as a whole. The following information is a summary only of certain risk factors and is qualified in its entirety by reference to, and must be read in conjunction with, the detailed information appearing elsewhere in this AIF. These risks and uncertainties are not the only ones that could affect the Company and additional risks and uncertainties not currently known to the Company, or that the Company currently deems immaterial, may also impair the returns, book value, financial condition and results of operations of the Company and the market value of the Shares. If any such risks actually occur, the returns, book value, financial condition and results of operations of the Company and the market value of the Shares could be materially adversely affected and the financial performance of the Company and the ability of the Company to pay distributions could be materially adversely affected.

Risks Associated with the Orderly Wind-Up

Amount and Timing of Distributions to Shareholders is Uncertain

The amount of cash to be distributed to Shareholders and the timing of any such distributions cannot currently be quantified or estimated with certainty and is subject to change. In particular, the cash amount distributed to Shareholders may be lower than anticipated: (i) to the extent that there are any unforeseen adverse events, including defaults, that impact the value of the Company's Portfolio; (ii) to the extent the monetization of the Company's Portfolio, including on any sales or on scheduled maturities, does not yield the proceeds anticipated; (iii) to the extent that the costs incurred to complete the Orderly Wind-Up are greater than anticipated; and (iv) to the extent there are material unforeseen costs or liabilities that must be satisfied by the Company. A Shareholder may receive substantially less than its pro rata share of the net assets of the Company, as set out on its most recent balance sheet.

The Company does not have the right to direct administration decisions in respect of certain Mortgages in the Portfolio

The Company holds interest in Mortgages in which third parties and/or other mortgage investment entities managed by the Manager participate in senior portions of a first mortgage. In addition, in some cases, the Company has been allocated a position in a Mortgage which is senior to, pari passu with and/or junior to the positions allocated to other mortgage investment entities managed by the Manager. As a result, the Company does not currently own 100% of the interests in each of the Mortgages in its Portfolio and does not have the right to direct the administration decisions such as renewals, extensions and modifications in respect of such Mortgages. As of December 31, 2017, 63.8% of the Mortgages in the Company's Portfolio are not 100% owned by the Company, representing an aggregate book value of approximately $33.0 million. The determination by the administrator of the Mortgages (a separate corporate affiliate of the Manager that is not subject to the Amending Agreement) of what is in the best interests of all of the participants in the Mortgage may be inconsistent with the monetization of a Mortgage or the Board's determination under the Orderly Wind-Up Plan. While the Board will work with the Manager and the administrator of the Mortgages to establish protocols to be followed throughout the process in respect of renewals, extensions, modifications and other administrative decisions relating to the Company's Mortgages, there is no assurance that such protocols will yield results which are consistent with the Orderly Wind-Up Plan. In light of the foregoing, there can be no assurance that the Company will complete the Orderly Wind-Up Plan on the basis described herein, which may have an adverse impact on the timing and amount of cash distributions made to Shareholders under the Orderly-Wind Up Plan.

Stock Exchange Listing and Status as a Reporting Issuer

Until an application is made and an order is issued by the Canadian securities regulatory authorities deeming the Company to no longer be a “reporting issuer”, the Company will continue to be subject to ongoing disclosure and other obligations as a reporting issuer under applicable securities legislation in Canada.

There can be no assurance that the Class A Shares will continue to be listed on, and meet the listing requirements of, the TSX. Although the Company may seek an alternative listing should the Shares be delisted from their current market, there can be no assurance that such listing can be obtained or that such listing will provide appropriate liquidity for the Shareholders. Furthermore, the Company may decide to cancel the Class A Shares and thus delist them. This can be expected to materially adversely affect the liquidity of the Shares and the transparency and availability of trading prices.

Potential Liability of Shareholders

Under the CBCA, despite the liquidation and dissolution of the Company, each Shareholder to whom any of its property has been distributed is liable to any person claiming under section 226 of the CBCA to the extent of the amount received by that Shareholder upon the distribution, and an action to enforce such liability may be brought.

Section 226 of the CBCA provides that, despite the dissolution of the Company under the CBCA, a civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding may be brought against the Company within two years, as if the Company had not been dissolved, and provides, among other things, that any property that would have been available to satisfy any judgment or order if the Company had not been dissolved, remains available for such purpose. Under the CBCA, the dissolution of the Company does not remove or impair any remedy available against the Company for any right or claim existing, or any liability incurred, prior to such dissolution or arising thereafter.

Risks Associated With the Business*Non-Conventional and Subordinate Financing*

The Company has not made Mortgage loans where the Loan-to-Value exceeds 75% at the time of funding. Any such Mortgages increase the risk of loss to the Company.

Subordinate financing (such as a second ranking Mortgage), which is being carried on by the Company, is generally considered a higher risk than first ranking financing. Mortgages are secured by a charge, which may be in a first, but often a subsequent ranking position in the underlying Real Property. When a charge on Real Property is in a position other than first ranking, it is possible for the holder of a prior charge on the Real Property, if the borrower is in default under the terms of its obligations to such holder, to take a number of actions against the borrower and ultimately against the Real Property in order to realize the security given for such loan. Such actions may include a foreclosure action, or an action forcing the Real Property to be sold. A foreclosure action may have the ultimate effect of depriving any person having other than a first ranking charge on the Real Property of the value of their security of the Real Property. If an action is taken to sell the Real Property and sufficient proceeds are not realized from such sale to pay off all creditors who have prior charges on the Real Property, the holder of a subsequent charge will lose its investment or part thereof to the extent of such deficiency, unless it can otherwise recover such deficiency from other property, if any, owned by the debtor.

Changes in Real Property Values

The Company's Mortgages are secured by Real Property, the value of which can fluctuate. The value of Real Property is affected by general economic conditions, local real estate markets, the attractiveness of the property to tenants where applicable, competition from other available properties, fluctuations in occupancy rates, operating expenses and other factors. The value of income-producing Real Property may also depend on the creditworthiness and financial stability of the borrowers and/or the tenants. Changes in market conditions may decrease the value of the secured Real Property and reduce the cash flow from the property, thereby impacting the ability of the borrower to service the debt and/or repay the Mortgage based on the property income. This, in turn, could negatively impact the Company's business and the market value of the Shares.

A substantial decline in value of Real Property provided as security for a Mortgage may cause the value of the property to be less than the outstanding principal amount of the Mortgage. Foreclosure by the Company on any such Mortgage might not provide the Company with sufficient proceeds to satisfy the outstanding principal amount of the Mortgage.

While independent appraisals are required before the Company may make any Mortgage loan, the appraised values, even where reported on an "as is" basis, are not necessarily reflective of the market value of the underlying Real Property, which may fluctuate. In addition, the appraised values reported in independent appraisals may be subject to certain conditions, including the completion of construction, rehabilitation, remediation or leasehold improvements on the Real Property providing security for the Mortgage. There can be no assurance that these conditions will be satisfied and if, and to the extent they are not satisfied, the appraised value may not be achieved. Even if such conditions are satisfied, the appraised value may not necessarily reflect the market value of the Real Property at the time the conditions are satisfied.

Composition and Concentration of the Portfolio

The Portfolio is comprised of Mortgages, although the Company may also hold some cash and cash equivalents on a transitional basis. Given the concentration of the Company's exposure to Mortgages, the Company is more susceptible to adverse economic or regulatory occurrences affecting Real Property than an issuer that owns a diversified portfolio of assets. Mortgages are relatively illiquid. Such illiquidity tends to limit the Company's ability to vary its Portfolio promptly in response to changing economic or investment conditions.

The Company holds a broad spectrum of Mortgages. Therefore, the composition of the Portfolio may vary widely from time to time. As the Orderly Wind-Up Plan proceeds, the Portfolio may be concentrated by location of the properties, type of property, or other factors resulting in the Portfolio being less diversified. As a result, the returns generated by the Portfolio may change as its composition changes.

No Guarantees or Insurance

There can be no assurance that Mortgage loans of the Company will result in a guaranteed rate of return or any return to Shareholders, or that losses will not be suffered on one or more Mortgage loans. Moreover, at any point in time, the interest rates being charged for Mortgages are reflective of the general level of interest rates and, as interest rates fluctuate, it is expected that the aggregate yield on Mortgage loans also will change.

A Mortgage borrower's obligations to the Company are not guaranteed by the Government of Canada, the government of any province or any agency thereof nor are they insured under the National Housing Act (Canada). In the event that additional security is given by the borrower or a third party or that a private guarantor guarantees the Mortgage borrower's obligations, there is no assurance that such additional security or guarantee will be sufficient to make the Company whole if and when resort is to be had thereto. Further, Shares are not "deposits" within the meaning of the Canadian Deposit Insurance Corporation Act (Canada) and are not insured under the provisions of that Act or any other legislation.

Sensitivity to Interest Rates

The market value for the Shares and the value of the Portfolio at any given time may be affected by the level of interest rates prevailing at such time. The Company's income consists primarily of interest payments on the Mortgages comprising the Portfolio. There can be no assurance that an interest rate environment in which there is a significant change in interest rates would not adversely affect the value of the Company's Portfolio.

Fluctuations in Book Value, Market Value and Distributions

The market value of the Shares and the cash available for distributions will vary according to, among other things, the value of the Portfolio, the interest earned thereon and the effects of the Orderly Wind-Up Plan. Fluctuations in the market value of the Portfolio may occur for a number of reasons beyond the control of the Company.

There can be no assurance regarding the amount of revenue that will be generated by the Mortgages comprising the Portfolio. The amount and frequency of distribution payments depend upon numerous factors, including the ability of borrowers to make applicable payments under Mortgages, interest rates, unexpected costs, and other factors which may not currently be known by or which may be beyond the control of the Company. If the directors of the Company determine that it would be in the best interests of the Company to do so, they may reduce or suspend for any period, or altogether cease indefinitely, the payment of distributions on Shares.

Mortgage Extensions and Defaults

The Company may from time to time deem it appropriate to extend or renew the term of a Mortgage past its maturity, or to accrue the interest on a Mortgage, in order to provide the borrower with increased repayment flexibility. The Company will generally do so if it believes that there is a very low risk of not being repaid the full principal and interest owing on the Mortgage. In these circumstances, however, the Company is subject to the risk that the principal and/or accrued interest of such Mortgage may not be repaid in a timely manner or at all, which could impact the cash flows of the Company during the period in which it is granting this accommodation. Further, in the event that the valuation of the mortgaged property has fluctuated substantially due to market conditions, there is a risk that the Company may not recover all or substantially all of the principal and interest owed to the Company in respect of such Mortgage.

When a Mortgage is extended past its maturity, the Mortgage can either be held over on a month-to-month basis, or renewed for an additional term at the time of its maturity. Notwithstanding any such extension or renewal, if the borrower subsequently defaults under any terms of the Mortgage, the Company has the ability to exercise its Mortgage enforcement remedies in respect of the extended or renewed Mortgage. Exercising Mortgage enforcement remedies is a process that requires a significant amount of time to complete, which could adversely impact the cash flows of the Company during the period of enforcement. In addition, as a result of potential declines in real estate values, there is no assurance that the Company will be able to recover all or substantially all of the outstanding principal and interest owed to the Company in respect of such Mortgages by exercising its Mortgage enforcement remedies. Should the Company be unable to recover all or substantially all of the principal and interest owed to the Company in respect of such Mortgages, the book value of the Company would be reduced, and the returns, financial condition and results of operations of the Company could be adversely impacted.

Mortgage Enforcement and Related Costs

If one or more borrowers fail to make payments according to the terms of their Mortgage, the Company would therefore be forced to exercise its rights as mortgagee. The recovery of a portion of the Company's assets may not be possible for an extended period of time during this process and there are circumstances where there may be complications in the enforcement of the Company's rights as mortgagee. Legal fees, expenses and other costs incurred by the Company in enforcing its rights as mortgagee against a defaulting borrower are usually recoverable from the borrower directly or through the sale of the mortgaged property by power of sale or otherwise, although there is no assurance that they will actually be recovered. In the event that these expenses are not recoverable, they will be borne by the Company.

Furthermore, certain significant expenditures, including property taxes, capital repair and replacement costs, maintenance costs, Mortgage payments, insurance costs and related charges must be made through the period of ownership of real property regardless of whether the property is producing income or whether Mortgage payments are being made. The Company may therefore be required to incur such expenditures to protect its investment, even if the borrower is not honouring its contractual obligations.

Litigation Risks

The Company may, from time to time, become involved in legal proceedings in the course of its business. The costs of litigation and settlement can be substantial and there is no assurance that such costs will be recovered in whole or at all. During litigation, the Company may not receive payments of interest on a Mortgage that is the subject of litigation, thereby impacting cash flows. The unfavourable resolution of any legal proceedings could have a material adverse effect on the Company, its financial position and the results of operations.

Trading Price of Class A Shares and Liquidity

The Class A Shares may trade in the market at a premium or discount to the book value per Class A Share and there can be no assurance that the Class A Shares will trade at a price equal to the book value per Class A Share or that a liquid market will exist. This risk is separate and distinct from the risk that the book value per Class A Share may decrease. The Company anticipates that the trading price of the Class A Shares will, in any event, vary from the book value per Class A Share. The trading price of the Class A Shares will be determined by, among other things, the relative demand for and supply of Class A Shares in the market, trading liquidity, the Company's performance, the Class A Shares' yield and investor perception of the Orderly Wind-Up Plan.

Not Qualified as a MIC

Effective February 15, 2017 the Company ceased to qualify as a MIC under the Tax Act. Accordingly, distributions paid by the Company on its Shares are no longer deductible by the Company in computing its income and will no longer be deemed to have been received by Shareholders as interest or a capital gain, as the case may be. As long as the Class A Shares are listed on a designated stock exchange, the rules in the Tax Act regarding the taxation of public corporations and their shareholders apply, with the result that the combined corporate and shareholder tax may be significantly greater. See "General Development of the Business - Recent Developments - Loss of MIC Status". In addition, if the Class A Shares cease to be listed on a designated stock exchange, the Class A Shares may not constitute qualified investments for Plans.

Reliance on Trez

Pursuant to the Management Agreement and the Mortgage Brokerage Agreement, Trez provides, or arranges to provide, to the Company all of the services it requires on a day-to-day basis. Although the employees of Trez who are primarily responsible for the performance of the obligations owed to the Company have extensive experience, there is no certainty that such individuals will continue to be employees of Trez in the future. In addition, each of the Management Agreement and the Mortgage Brokerage Agreement may be terminated in certain circumstances. There is no assurance that Trez will continue to provide services to the Company.

There also is no certainty that the persons who are currently officers and directors of Trez will continue to act in such capacity. Shareholders will be required to rely on the good faith, expertise and judgment of the individuals comprising the management of Trez from time to time. Shareholders do not have the right to direct or influence in any manner the business or affairs of Trez.

Conflicts of Interest

The Company is subject to a number of actual and potential conflicts of interest involving Trez and its affiliates because Trez provides management services to other investors, including other mortgage investment entities, and Trez may also invest for its own account. The services provided by Trez pursuant to the Management Agreement and the Mortgage Brokerage Agreement are not exclusive to the Company and the Management Agreement does not restrict Trez from establishing additional mortgage investment entities, from entering into other advisory relationships or from engaging in other business activities, even though such activities may be in competition with the Company and/or involve substantial time and resources of Trez. For example, Trez may manage or advise with respect to accounts (including separate accounts and mortgage investment entities) that have investment objectives similar to those of the Company and may engage in transactions in the same types of instruments as the Company.

The Company relies upon Trez to manage the business of the Company and to provide managerial skill. The directors and officers of Trez may have a conflict of interest in allocating their time between the respective businesses and interests of Trez and the Company, and other businesses or projects in which they may become involved. Trez currently provides management and mortgage brokerage services to a number of different mortgage investment entities having more assets than the Company, and this will preclude Trez from devoting all of its time and effort to the business of the Company.

Restrictions on Ownership and Repurchase of Shares

No Shareholder of the Company is permitted, together with Related Persons, at any time to hold more than 25% of any class of the issued Shares. The articles of the Company provide that the portion of such Shares held by a Shareholder, together with Related Persons, that exceeds 24.9% of the issued Shares of any class will be repurchased by the Company at a price per Share equal to their Repurchase Price, less any costs associated with such purchase. Such repurchases of Shares could be significant. See “Description of Capital Structure - Restrictions on Ownership”.

Changes in Legislation

There can be no assurance that certain laws applicable to the Company, including Canadian federal and provincial tax laws, tax proposals, securities laws, other governmental policies or regulations and governmental, administrative or judicial interpretation thereof, will not change in a manner that will adversely affect the Company or fundamentally alter the tax consequences to Shareholders acquiring, holding or disposing of Shares.

Environmental Matters

The Company may in the future take possession, through enforcement proceedings, of properties that secure defaulted Mortgages to recover its investment in such Mortgages. Prior to taking possession of properties which secure a Mortgage, Trez will assess the potential environmental liability associated with such enforcement and determine whether it was significant, having regard to the value of the property. If Trez subsequently determines to take possession of the property, the Company could be subject to environmental liabilities in connection with such real property, which could exceed the value of the property. As part of the due diligence performed in respect of the Company’s Mortgages, Trez may have obtained a Phase I Environmental Audit on the underlying real property provided as security for the Mortgage, where it determined that a Phase I Environmental Audit was appropriate. However, there can be no assurance that any such Phase I Environmental Audit will reveal any or all existing or potential environmental liabilities necessary to effectively insulate the Company from potential liability for a materially adverse environmental condition at any mortgaged property. If hazardous substances are discovered on a property of which the Company has taken possession, the Company may be required to remove such substances and remediate the property. The Company may also be liable to tenants and other users of neighbouring properties and may find it difficult or not possible to resell the property prior to or following such remediation.

DIVIDENDS AND DISTRIBUTIONS

Pursuant to the articles of the Company, Shareholders are entitled to receive dividends as and when declared thereon from time to time by the Board of Directors, acting in its sole discretion, out of the assets of the Company properly available for the payment of dividends. Until June 2016, the Company declared monthly cash dividends to Class A Shareholders of record on the last business day of each month and paid such dividends on or before the 15th day of the following month. Notwithstanding the above, the Company has the right to determine a record date that is other than the last business day of each month.

Since its first record date on August 31, 2012 until the record date of June 30, 2016, the Company has paid a cash dividend each month of $0.0583 per Class A Share ($0.70 per annum representing an annual cash dividend of 7.0% based on the $10.00 price per Class A Share at which Class A Shares were issued during the Company's previous public offerings), for a total of $0.29 per Class A Share declared in 2012, $0.70 per Class A Share declared in 2013 through 2015, and $0.4081 per Class A Share declared from January 2016 to June 2016. From July 2016 and through to March 2018, as part of the discontinuance and winding up of the business of the Company, the Company ceased paying dividends and declared distributions as a return of capital of $0.0583 per Class A Share payable to Shareholders of record on the last business day of each month during this period. The Company declared and paid two special distributions as a return of capital of $2.46 and $0.838 per Class A Share payable to Shareholders of record on August 15, 2017 and November 24, 2017, respectively. On March 23, 2018, the Company declared a special distribution as a return of capital of $1.52 per Class A Share payable to Shareholders of record on April 9, 2018, and suspended regular monthly distributions until further notice.

DESCRIPTION OF CAPITAL STRUCTURE

Authorized and Issued Capital

The Company is authorized to issue an unlimited number of Class A Shares and an unlimited number of Class B Shares, a summary of the terms and conditions of which are set forth below. As at March 28, 2018, 11,843,491 Class A Shares and nil Class B Shares were issued and outstanding.

Class A Shares

Voting

Class A Shareholders are entitled to receive notice of and to attend and vote at all meetings of the Shareholders of the Company (except where the holders of a specified class or classes of Shares, other than Class A Shares, are entitled to vote separately or collectively as a class as provided in the applicable Share conditions or in the CBCA) and a Class A Shareholder is entitled to one vote for each Class A Share held.

Dividends

Class A Shareholders are entitled to receive dividends as and when declared thereon from time to time by the Board, out of the assets of the Company properly applicable to the payment of dividends, in such amount as is determined by the directors of the Company in their absolute discretion. Dividends are generally paid in cash. However, the Board may, for fiscal planning or other tax efficiency reasons, in its discretion declare that a dividend will be payable to Class A Shareholders of record on December 31 and will be satisfied by the issuance of additional Class A Shares and/or cash and/or other property of the Company. Immediately following payment of any such dividend in Class A Shares, the number of Class A Shares outstanding after the dividend will be consolidated such that each Class A Shareholder will hold after the consolidation the same number of Class A Shares as the Class A Shareholder held before such dividend. In such case, each certificate representing one or more Class A Shares prior to the dividend of additional Class A Shares shall be deemed to represent the same number of Class A Shares after the dividend of additional Class A Shares and consolidation.

Dissolution

In the event of liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Company, whether voluntary or involuntary, or on the occurrence of any other event as a result of which Class A Shareholders are entitled to a distribution of assets of the Company for the purpose of winding-up its affairs, Class A Shares and Class B Shares shall rank equally with each other and in priority to any other shares of the Company ranking junior to the Class A Shares and Class B Shares.

Book-Entry Only System

Registration of interests in and transfers of the Class A Shares are currently made solely through the book-entry only system maintained by CDS. Class A Shares must be purchased, transferred and sold through a CDS Participant. All rights of an owner of Class A Shares must be exercised through, and all payments or other property to which such owner is entitled will be made or delivered by CDS. Upon the acquisition of Class A Shares, the owner will receive only the customary confirmation. References in this AIF to a Class A Shareholder mean, unless the context otherwise requires, the owner of the beneficial interest in Class A Shares. The ability of an owner of Class A Shares to pledge such Class A Shares or otherwise take action with respect to such owner's interest in such Class A Shares (other than through a CDS Participant) may be limited due to the lack of a physical certificate. The Company has the option to terminate registration for the Class A Shares through the book-entry only system in which case certificates for such securities in fully registered form would be issued to beneficial owners of such Class A Shares or to their nominees.

Class B Shares

Issuable in Series

The Class B Shares may be issued from time to time in one or more series composed of such number of Class B Shares and with such special rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attached thereto as shall be fixed from time to time before issuance by any resolution or resolutions providing for the issue of the Class B Shares of any series which may be passed by the directors of the Company and confirmed and declared by articles of amendment.

Dissolution

In the event of liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Company, whether voluntary or involuntary, or on the occurrence of any other event as a result of which Class B Shareholders are entitled to a distribution of assets of the Company for the purpose of winding-up its affairs, Class B Shares and Class A Shares shall rank equally with each other and in priority to any other shares of the Company ranking junior to the Class B Shares and Class A Shares.

Restrictions on Ownership

No Shareholder is permitted, together with Related Persons, at any time to hold more than 25% of any class of the issued Shares.

In the event that a transaction (each a “Triggering Transaction”), if completed, would cause any Shareholder(s) (each an “Automatic Repurchase Shareholder”), together with Related Persons, to hold more than 25% of the Shares of any class, that portion of such Shares held by each Automatic Repurchase Shareholder which constitutes in excess of 24.9% of the issued Shares of such class (the “Repurchased Shares”) will, simultaneously with the completion of a Triggering Transaction, automatically be deemed to have been repurchased by the Company (an “Automatic Repurchase”) without any further action by the Company or the Automatic Repurchase Shareholder. The purchase price for any Repurchased Shares will be equal to the Repurchase Price, less any costs associated with such purchase. The proceeds of any Automatic Repurchase will be remitted to each applicable Automatic Repurchase Shareholder at the time of the Automatic Repurchase.

Rights Plan

On February 18, 2016, the Board adopted a Rights Plan for the Company. On May 17, 2016, the Board amended and restated the Rights Plan to ensure that the Rights Plan preserves the fair treatment of Shareholders, is consistent with current Canadian best corporate practices and addresses institutional investor guidelines. The Rights Plan was ratified by Shareholders at the annual and special meeting of Shareholders held on June 16, 2016.

The Rights Plan is designed to ensure that Shareholders and the Board have adequate time to consider and evaluate any unsolicited bid for the Shares, provide the Board with adequate time to identify, develop and negotiate value-enhancing alternatives to any such unsolicited bid and encourage the fair treatment of Shareholders in connection with any take-over bid for the Company. The Rights Plan encourages a potential acquirer to proceed by way of a “Permitted Bid”, which requires the take-over bid to satisfy specified minimum standards designed to promote fairness.

The Rights Plan was not adopted in response to any specific take-over bid, nor is the Board currently aware of any pending or threatened take-over bid for the Company.

Summary

The material terms of the Rights Plan are summarized below. This summary is qualified in its entirety by the full text of the Rights Plan, which can be found on SEDAR at www.sedar.com.

General

The Rights Plan is effective as of February 25, 2016. One right (a “Right”) has been issued and is attached to each Share.

The Rights will separate from the Shares and will be exercisable 10 trading days after a person has acquired, or commences a take-over bid to acquire, 20% or more of the Shares, other than by an acquisition pursuant to a take-over bid permitted by the Rights Plan (a “Permitted Bid”). The acquisition by any person (an “Acquiring Person”) of 20% or more of the Shares, other than by way of a Permitted Bid (or other exceptions included in the Rights Plan), is referred to as a “Flip-in Event”. Any Rights held by an Acquiring Person will become void on the occurrence of a Flip-in Event. Once Rights become exercisable, holders of Rights (other than an Acquiring Person) will be entitled to acquire Shares with a market value of five times the market price for an amount equal to the exercise price, resulting in a significant dilution to the Acquiring Person.

Permitted Bid Requirements

If a take-over bid is structured as a Permitted Bid, a Flip-in Event will not occur and the Rights will not become exercisable. Permitted Bids must be made by means of a take-over bid circular and comply with the following:

- (a) the take-over bid must be made to all Shareholders as registered on the books of the Company other than the bidder;
- (b) the take-over bid must not permit the bidder to pay for any Shares that have been tendered until 105 days after the take-over bid is made (or such shorter period that a non-exempt take-over bid must remain open for deposits pursuant to applicable securities law), and then only if at such time more than 50% of the Shares held by the Independent Shareholders have been tendered to the take-over bid and not withdrawn;
- (c) the take-over bid must contain an irrevocable and unqualified condition that, unless it is withdrawn, Shares may be tendered at any time during the deposit period described in (b) above, and that any Shares deposited to the take-over bid may be withdrawn until they have been taken up and paid for; and
- (d) the take-over bid must contain an irrevocable and unqualified condition that, if more than 50% of the Shares held by Independent Shareholders are tendered to the take-over bid within the deposit period described in (b) above, the bidder will make a public announcement of that fact and the take-over bid will remain open for not less than 10 business days from the date of the public announcement.

The Rights Plan also allows a Competing Permitted Bid to be made while a Permitted Bid is in existence. A Competing Permitted Bid must satisfy all of the requirements for a Permitted Bid, except that it may expire on the same date as the Permitted Bid, subject to the requirement that it be open for the minimum number of days that such Competing Permitted Bid must remain open for deposits of securities under applicable securities law.

Redemption and Waiver

The Board may waive the application of the Rights Plan to a particular take-over bid or redeem the Rights at a price of $0.0001 per Right in certain circumstances.

Fiduciary Duty of Board

The Rights Plan will not detract from or lessen the duty of the Board to act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Company. The Board will continue to have the duty and power to take such actions and make such recommendations to the Shareholders as are considered appropriate.

For greater certainty, the salaries of the employees of Trez are borne by Trez.

The costs of initially extending a Mortgage loan (for example, legal expenses, third party consultants, insurance, administrative fees, etc.) are generally paid by the Mortgage loan borrower.

Trez

The Company does not have any employees of its own. Accordingly, the Company has retained the Manager and the Mortgage Broker to manage the day-to-day affairs of the Company and the Mortgage Broker to provide mortgage broker services to the Company. The head office of the Manager and the Mortgage Broker is located at 1700-745 Thurlow Street, Vancouver, British Columbia V6E 0C5. Both the Manager and the Mortgage Broker are wholly-owned by Trez Capital Group Limited Partnership. Trez Capital Fund Management (2011) Corporation, the general partner of the Manager, and Trez Capital (2011) Corporation, the general partner of the Mortgage Broker, are affiliates of each other and wholly-owned subsidiaries of the general partner of Trez Capital Group Limited Partnership.

For the period from May 25, 2012 to July 24, 2012, Trez Capital Limited Partnership acted as the manager of the Company. The Manager became the manager of the Company effective July 25, 2012 upon the completion of a reorganization of the Mortgage Broker whereby responsibility for the day-to-day management and administration of the Company was transferred to the Manager, other than for the services which continue to be provided by the Mortgage Broker.

Trez is a mortgage brokerage and investment management business that employs a conservative and risk-averse approach to real estate-based investments. Trez is currently one of the largest alternative lenders of short-term bridge Mortgages in Canada with approximately $2.0 billion in fee-earning assets of which approximately $1.9 billion is invested in Mortgages and the balance is in a portfolio of real estate assets managed on behalf of a major Canadian pension fund. The Company enables investors to access Trez's extensive experience and track record in order to invest in an opportunistic, fully-secured, high-yield portfolio of Mortgages originated by a sophisticated, high quality licensed mortgage broker.

Trez has been originating Mortgages for over twenty years and believes there is a large segment of the Canadian Mortgage lending market which continues to be under-serviced by traditional real estate lenders. Canadian financial institutions do not generally dedicate significant resources to originate, structure and administer short-term bridge Mortgages to real estate investors and developers, and typically cannot provide the flexibility or timeliness required to meet the needs of these borrowers. Trez established the Company and other mortgage investment entities to take advantage of this under-serviced niche market that requires short-term, tailored Mortgages. These Mortgages generally are structured as first or second ranking Mortgages with relatively attractive pricing and prudent Loan-to-Value ratios. In some cases, Trez may permit a third party (typically a Canadian chartered bank, a trust company or another mortgage investment entity) and/or another mortgage investment entity managed by Trez to participate in a senior portion of a first Mortgage at a reduced interest rate, thereby enabling the Company to retain a larger amount of interest revenue when compared to the portion of the Mortgage retained by the other investor.

With its strong platform and Mortgage lending expertise, Trez is able to tailor Mortgages in terms of:

- Timing: Mortgages can be funded in as little as two to three weeks to meet short deadlines for qualified real estate investors and/or developers;

- Terms: While Canadian financial institutions typically offer only 5 to 10 year fixed term Mortgages, Trez can arrange for shorter-terms (such as 6 - 36 months) with early and flexible repayment options; and
- Payment: In appropriate circumstances, Mortgages can be structured by Trez to require interest-only payments while Mortgages provided by Canadian financial institutions typically require a combination of interest and principal repayment. The Mortgages also generally permit early repayment without penalty on appropriate notice.

The Mortgages structured by Trez can benefit borrowers by providing (a) the ability to execute quickly on real estate investment opportunities, (b) loan terms that are in-line with the real estate investor's business model, and (c) potentially lower monthly payments through interest-only payments. As a result of the above, borrowers are generally willing to pay higher interest rates for such short-term Mortgages.

The Manager is the sole and exclusive manager of the Company to direct the business, operations and affairs of, and provide, or arrange to provide, all day-to-day management and administrative services required by, the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, pursuant to the Amending Agreement, the Manager, acting in its capacity as manager of the Company, provides the day-to-day management services set out above in a manner consistent with the Orderly Wind-Up Plan, under the supervision of the Investment & Capital Management Committee and the Board.

Management Agreement

Pursuant to the Management Agreement, the Manager is required to exercise its powers and discharge its duties diligently, honestly and in good faith and, in connection therewith, to exercise the standard of care that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in the circumstances. The Management Agreement provides that the Manager will indemnify the Company for any losses incurred as a result of the wilful misconduct, bad faith or negligence of the Manager or the Manager's breach of its standard of care under the Management Agreement or a material breach or default of the Manager's obligations under the Management Agreement.

The term of the Management Agreement is for a period of 10 years ending on November 30, 2023, and will automatically renew for successive 5 year terms thereafter, unless terminated by the Company upon approval of a two-thirds majority of the votes cast by the independent directors of the Company (a) at the conclusion of the initial term or any renewal term, upon not less than 12 months' prior written notice to the Manager, (b) at any time, in the event that there is (i) a material breach of the Management Agreement by the Manager that is not remedied within 60 days of written notice to the Manager (or such longer period as may be reasonably required to remedy such breach, provided such longer period does not exceed 120 days), and that has a material adverse effect on the business, operations or affairs of the Company, (ii) the Manager commits any act of bad faith, wilful malfeasance, gross negligence or reckless disregard of its duties or breach of its standard of care; or (iii) any bankruptcy, insolvency or liquidation proceedings are taken against the Manager or if the Manager makes an assignment for the benefit of its creditors, commits any act of bankruptcy or declares itself or is declared to be insolvent (each of (i), (ii) and (iii), a "Termination for Cause"); or (c) upon the date (the "Early Termination Date") specified in a written notice to the Manager, such notice to be delivered at any time after November 30, 2017 and such Early Termination Date being not less than 12 months following the date of such written notice, and upon payment of an amount equal to three times the total amount of management fees and performance fees earned by the Manager in the previous twelve months (the "Early Termination Fee"). The Management Agreement also provides for a reduction to the Early Termination Fee in certain circumstances. Upon the wind-up of the Company approved by a special resolution of Shareholders, no Early Termination Fee shall be payable to the Manager.

The Management Agreement also may be terminated by the Manager (a) in the event that there is a breach of the Management Agreement by the Company that is not remedied within 60 days of written notice to the Company (or such longer period as may be reasonably required to remedy such breach, provided such longer period does not exceed 120 days) and that has a material adverse effect on the business, operations or affairs of the Manager, or any bankruptcy, insolvency or liquidation proceedings are taken against the Company or the Company makes an assignment for the benefit of its creditors, commits any act of bankruptcy or declares itself or is declared to be insolvent; or (b) at any time after the initial term, provided at least 12 months' written notice is given to the Company.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, pursuant to the Amending Agreement, upon completion of the Orderly Wind-Up Plan, the Management Agreement shall terminate and the Manager shall not be entitled to any termination fee including, for greater certainty, the Early Termination Fee described above.

Amending Agreement

On May 6, 2016, the Company also entered into an amending agreement with the Manager to amend the terms of the Management Agreement (the "Amending Agreement") in order to facilitate the Orderly Wind-Up Plan. Under the Amending Agreement, the Manager is currently providing the full asset management services necessary to support the Orderly Wind-Up Plan. The Amending Agreement also provides for an amendment to the fees payable to the Manager to align the Manager's interest to the implementation of the Orderly Wind-up Plan, as described under "Compensation of the Manager" below.

In accordance with the Amending Agreement, the Board irrevocably and unconditionally directed the Manager to cease all new mortgage origination and, unless approved by the Investment & Capital Management Committee and subject to compliance with contractual requirements, all mortgage renewal activity. Furthermore, the mandate of the Investment & Capital Management Committee was expanded to include the management and oversight of the Orderly Wind-Up Plan including, without limitation, all matters relating to the sales of loans (such as price, timing of sale, purchaser, etc.), loan consents and renewals and matters related to the return of capital to Shareholders, including consideration of a substantial issuer bid and consideration of the maintenance of the current level of distributions, with the input of the Manager, acting in its capacity as manager of the Company, and subject to the approval of the Board as required. The Company has ceased all new mortgage originations and mortgage renewals, subject to contractual requirements.

The Amending Agreement provides that the Orderly Wind-Up Plan shall be implemented through a combination of the following actions: (i) allowing the mortgages in the Company's portfolio to expire at their scheduled maturities and in accordance with the terms thereof; (ii) selling mortgages in the Company's portfolio at par prior to their scheduled maturities; and (iii) in addition to or in lieu of the foregoing, by effecting other transactions, as determined by the Investment & Capital Management Committee, in its discretion, acting in a fiduciary capacity consistent with its obligations to maximize value to all Shareholders.

The Amending Agreement provides that the Company shall distribute the net proceeds resulting from the Orderly Wind-Up Plan to Shareholders in a manner determined by the Investment & Capital Management Committee from time to time, acting reasonably and in the best interest of all Shareholders, and approved, as may be required, by the Board from time to time, whether through special dividends, the repurchase of shares pursuant to the NCIB or a substantial issuer bid, a return of capital or otherwise.

Compensation of the Manager

For its services under the Management Agreement, the Manager receives from the Company a Management Fee equal to 1.25% per annum of the gross assets, net of mortgage syndications, of the Company, calculated and paid monthly in arrears, plus applicable taxes. Under the terms of the Amending Agreement, the foregoing Management Fee shall continue until the earlier of the completion of the Orderly Wind-Up Plan and the termination of the Management Agreement.

Under the Management Agreement, the Manager is also entitled to a performance fee (the "Performance Fee") each calendar year equal to 20% of the amount by which the Net Return for that year exceeds the product of (i) the average month-end Shareholder Capital during such year, and (ii) the average of the 2-Yr GOC Yield on the last day of each calendar month during the year plus 450 basis points (the "Hurdle Rate") and prorated for any partial years. Under the Amending Agreement, no Performance Fee has been, or will be, payable to the Manager in respect of any period after April 30, 2016.

Pursuant to the Amending Agreement, in consideration for its additional services to the Company in connection with the Orderly Wind-Up Plan, the Manager is entitled to a fee (the “Incentive Fee”) calculated as the greater of the following:

- (i) 20% of the amount by which the sum of:
 - (A) the aggregate Realized Proceeds; and
 - (B) the Company’s Unrestricted Cash as at April 30, 2016 ($4,885,544) exceeds $163,509,009 (the “Threshold”); and
- (ii) $1,000,000.

For the purpose of the foregoing calculation: (i) Realized Proceeds means the amount of proceeds on the sale, repayment or maturity of mortgages or any other transaction resulting in the monetization of the mortgages as approved by the Board in accordance with the terms of the Amending Agreement, in each case, realized by the Company in respect of the principal of the mortgages under the Orderly Wind-Up Plan; and (ii) Unrestricted Cash means the amount of Company’s cash derived from the proceeds on the sale, repayment or maturity of mortgages or any other transaction resulting in the monetization of the mortgages on or prior to April 30, 2016.

Concurrent with any distributions made to Shareholders by the Company, whether through dividends, the repurchase of shares pursuant to the NCIB or a substantial issuer bid, a return of capital or otherwise, the Company shall pay to the Manager a portion of the minimum Incentive Fee (i.e., $1,000,000) (the “Minimum”), calculated so that after the payment, the Manager shall have been paid in aggregate the same proportion of the Minimum that the aggregate of the Realized Proceeds and the Unrestricted Cash represent of the Threshold at the time of each such distribution to Shareholders until such time as the Manager has received at least the Minimum. Upon the completion of the Orderly Wind-Up Plan and concurrent with the final distribution to Shareholders, any Incentive Fee due in excess of the Minimum and any portion of the Minimum that has not been paid, shall be paid by the Company to the Manager.

The Manager pays the Mortgage Broker a fee out of the Manager’s compensation under the Management Agreement.

The Manager also is entitled to be reimbursed for all expenses incurred by the Manager on behalf of the Company. The Manager may assign its rights to receive Management Fees in whole or in part to an affiliate of the Manager. In addition, the Manager and each of its directors, officers, employees and partners are not liable to the Company for any default, failure or defect in the Portfolio or for any act or omission within the scope of the Manager’s authority, except those resulting from the Manager’s wilful misconduct, bad faith, negligence, breach of the Manager’s standard of care or material breach or default by the Manager of its obligations under the Management Agreement.

The management services provided by the Manager under the Management Agreement are not exclusive to the Company and nothing in the Management Agreement prevents the Manager from providing similar management services to other persons or from engaging in other activities provided that the Manager acts, at all times, in accordance with its standard of care and thereby allocates Mortgage lending opportunities to the Company and to its other clients on a fair and equitable basis.

The Mortgage Broker provides or arranges for the provision of all services required by the Company and the Manager to originate, due diligence, structure, advance and administer on a day-to-day basis the Mortgage loans of the Company.

The Mortgage Broker actively oversees the servicing of all Mortgages in the Portfolio in order to monitor the status of all loans and respond to any potential issues that may arise. The Mortgage Broker (i) provides day-to-day administration of individual Mortgages in the Portfolio directly or (ii) ensures, in instances where the Company participates in a syndicated Mortgage and other direct participants in the investment act as the Mortgage servicing agents, that the servicing agents appointed to administer an individual Mortgage are licensed in accordance with the requirements of the Mortgage Brokers Act (British Columbia) or other similar applicable legislation. The servicing agents' duties are the day-to-day administration of individual Mortgages, including, among others things, responsibilities such as the collection of monthly payments, management of property tax and other escrow accounts, regular remittance to the Company of interest and other income collected, monitoring the status of loans, and regular reporting to the Mortgage Broker as required by the applicable servicing agreement.

Mortgage Brokerage Agreement

The Mortgage Broker is required to exercise its powers and discharge its duties diligently, honestly, in good faith and in the best interests of the Company and to exercise the care, diligence and skill of a reasonably prudent person in the circumstances. The Mortgage Brokerage Agreement provides that the Mortgage Broker will not be liable in any way for any default, failure or defect in the Portfolio held by the Company if it has satisfied the duties and the standard of care, diligence and skill set forth in the Mortgage Brokerage Agreement. The Mortgage Broker will incur liability, however, in cases of wilful misconduct, bad faith, negligence, breach of the Mortgage Broker's standard of care or any material breach or default by it of its obligations under the Mortgage Brokerage Agreement.

Unless the Mortgage Broker resigns or is removed as described below, the Mortgage Broker will continue as Mortgage Broker until the dissolution of the Company. The Mortgage Broker may resign if the Company or the Manager is in breach or default of the provisions of the Mortgage Brokerage Agreement and, if capable of being cured, any such breach or default has not been cured within 30 days of notice of such breach or default to the Company or the Manager. The Mortgage Broker will continue as Mortgage Broker until it becomes bankrupt or insolvent. The Mortgage Brokerage Agreement may be terminated by the Company only if the Mortgage Broker is in material breach or default of the provisions of the Mortgage Brokerage Agreement and, if capable of being cured, any such breach or default has not been cured within 30 days of notice of such breach or default to the Mortgage Broker. The Mortgage Broker may also terminate the Mortgage Brokerage Agreement upon not less than 120 days written notice to the Company.

For its services under the Mortgage Brokerage Agreement, the Mortgage Broker is paid a fee by the Manager out of the Manager's compensation under the Management Agreement and is reimbursed for all expenses incurred by the Mortgage Broker on behalf of the Company. The Mortgage Broker and each of its directors, officers, employees and partners are indemnified by the Company for any losses incurred in connection with any claims that are made against the Mortgage Broker, or any of its officers, directors, employees or partners, arising out of its activities on behalf of the Company or in furtherance of the interests of the Company, except those resulting from the Mortgage Broker's wilful misconduct, bad faith, negligence, breach of the Mortgage Broker's standard of care, material breach or default by the Mortgage Broker of its obligations under the Mortgage Brokerage Agreement or a breach of fiduciary duty by the Mortgage Broker.

The services provided by the Mortgage Broker under the Mortgage Brokerage Agreement are not exclusive to the Company and nothing in the Mortgage Brokerage Agreement prevents the Mortgage Broker from providing similar services to other persons or from engaging in other activities.
